Returned with compliments.

Temporary recognition has been granted to this school by the Department This school is working satisfactorily

As per the financial statements of the school for the year 1947-48, the authorised expenditure incurred by the Management during that year is Rs 2,823-12-0 against an income of Rs 2002-2-0 from fees The net authorised expenditure for that year will be Rs 821-10-0 As three fourths

Contribution of Rs 500/- to the Ajjampur High School by the MLF —

4357/m1

of the net authorised expenditure, i,e, Rs 616-3-6 is met by Government by way of maintenance grant, the Management's share of the expenditure for that year will be Rs 205-6-6. During the current year the III year class has been opened in the School and the Management is required to meet the additional expenditure resulting therefrom Further, the school was started only during 1946-47 and the Management requires funds to meet other demands on equipment etc , in connection with the maintenance of the school. I am therefore of opinion that the school is in need of the financial help proposed to be given to it by the local Municipal Council during the current year
